WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Privacy Policy for consumers

“Personal information” is information or an opinion, whether true or not and whether recorded in a material form or not, about an individual who is identified or reasonably identifiable.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT FROM YOU AND HOW DO WE USE IT?

L'Oréal believes that you, the consumer, are at the heart of what we do. We love hearing from you, learning about you, and creating and delivering products that you enjoy. And we know that many of you love talking to us. Because of this, there are many ways that you might share your personal information with us, and that we might collect it.

How do we collect or receive your information?

We might collect or receive information from you via our websites, forms, apps, devices, L'Oréal products or brands pages on social media or otherwise. Sometimes you give this to us directly (e.g. when you create an account, when you contact us, when you purchase from our websites/apps or stores/beauty salon), sometimes we collect it (e.g. using cookies to understand how you use our websites/apps) or sometimes we receive your information from other third parties, including other L'Oréal Group entities.

When we collect information, we indicate the mandatory fields via asterisks where such information is necessary for us to:

- Perform our contract with you (e.g. to deliver the products you have purchase on our websites/apps);
- Provide you with the service you have asked for (e.g. to provide you with a newsletter); or
- Comply with legal requirements (e.g. invoicing).

If you do not provide the information marked with an asterisk, this may affect our ability to provide the products and services.

We set out further details in the table below, explaining:
